

Counting Star Operations on an Integral Domain

This talk will survey what is known about integral domains which admit only finitely many star operations. In particular, I will completely characterize integrally closed domains and Noetherian domains which admit at most two star operations.